I、 Comments by President Watanabe

① Thoughts at present, after listing

We were listed on the Tokyo Stock Exchange Mothers Index on November 29, 2016. The big change after our listing was the increase in recognition of our name. The knowledge of us among people with whom we had previously had no contact gave us new business opportunities and enabled us to obtain the very latest information. This, in turn, empowered us to engage in wide-ranging corporate activities.

② The struggle before listing

While we were preparing for listing, there were many opportunities to create new systems. There were many unfamiliar terms and we had trouble understanding the systems themselves. But it was also fun learning about them.

③ Words of encouragement for other MINERVA venture member companies

There are plenty of openings waiting for companies that do not have any preconceptions about precedents or records and can look at the business from their own unique perspectives. I hope we can continue to stimulate each other and grow as companies.

II、 Comments by an employee representative: Ms. Sachiko Mizuuchi, Personnel & General Affairs Team, Management Group

① Thoughts at present, after listing

Because we are now listed, quotations for our stock fluctuate on a daily basis. We are getting more phone calls from shareholders, and I can sense that we are attracting more attention. We intend to apply ourselves to our work with a consciousness of being employees of a listed company.

② The struggle before listing, in the view of an employee

We had a hard time performing work out of the realm of our experience so far, such as preparing application documents for listing and making arrangements for internal control. We managed to move ahead with the support of lead managing securities companies, printing companies, and other parties.

III、 Words of congratulations

★Mr. Masatoshi Go, Vice President, Venture Support Mechanism MINERVA

Congratulations on your listing on the Mothers Index! "They are definitely not spectacular, but are firmly committed to something. They have a challenger's spirit, but do not seem to be talking too big. Yet you can always sense the dreams they want to come true and their ardent aspirations." This is my image of Mr. Watanabe and JMC Corporation. Please tell even more people about your aspirations as a listed company and take aim at even further progress.

★Mr. Katsuhiro Yamashita, President, TNP On The Road Corporation

Congratulations on your listing on the Mothers Index! I can still recall the look on Mr. Watanabe's face when he so enthusiastically spoke of his dedication to the business when we first met. I continue to be impressed with his attitude of always looking ahead and striving to achieve his aspirations. My best wishes for even greater strides from now on!
